What teachers, librarians, and students are saying!

"Meredith's warmth, enthusiasm, and love for storytelling made her time with us truly memorable. Our students especially loved reading and laughing along with There's a Yeti in My Tummy! She engaged our students with thoughtful questions, and made each child feel seen and heard."

– Elizabeth Westbrook, Assistant Director Primrose Schools

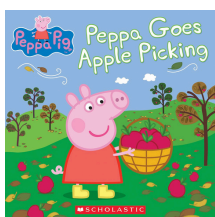

"Having an author like Meredith Rusu come and read one of our classroom's favorite books was such a thrill! The children were engaged and delighted as she brought her book to life!"

– Carol Tunney, Pre-K 4 Teacher

"I enthusiastically recommend Meredith for author visits at any school. She is a kind, creative, and expressive writer whose passion for storytelling shines through in every interaction. Her love for children is evident in the way she engages young readers. Her ability to connect with students and spark their imagination makes her a wonderful addition to any literary event."

– Brandee Conover, Elementary Librarian

"It was really fun when Meredith helped our Girl Scout troop earn our Author Badge. She told us about being an author and the whole writing process and it made me want to become an author too!"

– Elle, Third Grade Girl Scout
